

ANDREA ANDORNO

Born in Genoa on May 1st 1973.

Graduated with top marks cum laude in Business and Economics at the University of Genoa in 1996. He specialized in Finance and Accounting at New York University.

He began his career in 1998 at KPMG, as executive consultant in the Corporate Finance Division, leading projects related to the transport industry.

In 2003 joins the Alitalia group, initially as Director Investor Relations and Corporate Strategy, then as Director Network and Fleet Planning and finally as Vice President Finance.

He also covered within the group the Chief Executive Officer role in Challey Group, Air One Technic and Alitalia CityLiner.

From 2013 to 2017 as Chief Commercial Officer of Meridiana redesigned the carrier's commercial strategy and redefined the network and implemented a new distribution strategy.

In 2017, following the entry of Qatar Airways into Meridiana as a shareholder and primary industrial partner, he held the role of Chief Commercial Officer of Air Italy, accompanying the transformation from a charter carrier to a schedule international airline.

He has also been Executive Committee Member of Assoclearance (Italian association for airport clearance and slot coordination), Managing Committee Member of Assaereo and Board of Directors Member of Air One S.p.A..

In January 2019 he has been appointed Chief Executive Officer of SAGAT S.p.A., the company responsible for the management and development of Torino Airport.

He is also Chairman of SAGAT Handling S.p.A., Vice-Chair of the "Gruppo Turismo e Cultura dell'Unione Industriali di Torino", Vice-Chair of the ACI EUROPE's Regional Airports' Forum, member of the Executive Board of Assaeroporti (Italian airports association) and member of the Executive Board and the General Council of "Unione Industriali Torino".